

The Towns Around.DANVILLE.*The Base Ball Fever is On.

The Marshfield nine failed to appear last Saturday and a ball game was arranged between the Clippers and a picked nine. The score stood 10 to 6 in favor of the Clippers.

There will be a fine game on Friday afternoon of this week between the Morrisville nine and the Clippers, whichever one will want to see. In the evening there will be a promenade concert for the benefit of the Danville Clippers. Music, Danville Sextette.

The Danville Reserves defeated a picked nine from Harvey's Hollow and Peacham on Friday last. The game took place at Harvey's Hollow. Score standing 12 to 10. The same nine will play another game on the common in the forenoon, Friday, Aug. 17.

Political Points.

The republican caucus for the nomination of town representative will be held at the town hall on Friday evening, Aug. 24, at 8 o'clock.

The board of civil authority will meet for the correction of the check list at the town hall on Saturday, Aug. 10, instead of Aug. 20, as was stated in last week's paper. The date is changed to conform with the provision of the law. Every voter should see that his name is on the list, and if it is not, should attend this meeting.

Personal and Otherwise.

J. S. Cameron from Salt Lake City and Mrs. Shepard from Boston are boarding at the Elm House.

W. O. Stratton from Wolcott was in town a few days last week.

Mrs. Moron from Miles Pond is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mose Oederkirk.

Miss Jennie Bruce and Miss Addie Godkin from Woburn, Mass., are spending a few weeks at W. N. West's.

Warner Goodenough will sell at auction his farm and personal property on Tuesday, Aug. 21, at 1 o'clock p. m.

The ladies of the Eastern Star will give an ice cream social in the Masonic rooms, Tuesday evening, Aug. 21, to which every one is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Cook from Newtonville, Mass., are visiting J. W. Gillis.

Mrs. Lyman Hunt from North Billerica, Mass., is in town visiting relatives and friends.

N. H. Page has been quite sick for a few days.

About 150 people were present at the sociable at Fred Stocker's last week, and a very pleasant time was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mattocks from Boston are in town.

Prof. J. B. Johnson of Norwich University, was in town last week in the interests of the university.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Dole have gone to Old Orchard for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Calvin Macomber from Canton, Mass., her son, Herbert Macomber from Providence, R. I., and Mrs. Wm. French and her daughter, Miss Kate French, are stopping at Abial Shurtleff's.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Bovee spent a few days in Barre last week visiting relatives.

W. H. Worthen has sold his meat business and dwelling house to F. B. Ainsworth of Peacham. Mr. Ainsworth will take possession Oct. 1.

The ladies of the Library Association will give a social at their rooms on Saturday evening, Aug. 18. Every one invited.

George Brown and Miss N. H. Terrill of Brooklyn are at Thurber's.

Welcome Drown from Barre is in town visiting his son, John Drown.

James Borland, Jr., has gone to Ludlow, where he has a position as foreman of the Vermont Tribune.

Nathaniel Stocker, who has been visiting relatives and friends in town for the past month, has returned to his home in Woodsville.

L. G. Burnham from Burlington was in town this week visiting Mrs. Annette Farr.

Miss L. Atwood from Taunton, Mass., is at Miss Emily Davis's.

Rev. S. B. Currier of Tarpon Springs, Fla., who has been spending a few days with his nephew, Rev. F. E. Currier, preached a very able sermon at the M. E. church on Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Pierce from Littleton, N. H., and her mother, Mrs. Dr. A. J. Carter, from Lyndon, are visiting at Dr. Carter's.

WEST DANVILLE.

Percy Flint of Tyngsboro, Mass., arrived here last week on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Flint, and other friends.

Mrs. Tom Denning of Laconia, N. H., is on a visit to her friends here.

Miss Ida S. Merrill of Haverhill, Mass., returned home Monday, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Merrill.

E. N. Dunbar is progressing finely with the repairs on the grist mill. He has got in the upper portion of the flume and bulk head so the dam fills, and the sash shop of George Merrill and Son can be run after a week's rest.

A large delegation went to the circus Tuesday.

Miss Ida Haviland of Barre came here on Saturday on a vacation visit to her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lane, and other friends.

H. C. Hill of Norwich, was here over Sunday with family, who are stopping with her parents, George Merrill.

NORTH DANVILLE.

Miss Anna Webster of Montpelier is stopping at Geo. Sanborn's.

Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Drown and family of Burke are visiting at E. Gates's.

The civil authority of the town of Danville will meet at the town hall on Saturday, Aug. 18, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of correcting the check list.

Chauncey Gannon of New York is visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Massey.

The North Danville band will give a promenade concert at Danville town hall, Saturday evening, Aug. 25; a good time is assured to those who attend.

Mrs. B. C. McFarland of St. Johnsbury visited at Mrs. Bickford's and other relatives and friends in this place last week.

Mrs. F. W. Green is visiting friends in Portland, Me.

Little Helen Massey, who has been quite sick, is gaining now.—Grace Paquin is quite sick. Her father, Eugene Paquin, is at home.

BARNET.

Miss Maud Hadley of Lowell is visiting at J. S. T. Wallace's.

Thomas Gilligan goes to Old Orchard Beach this week for his health.

Miss Charlotte Hazelton is home from the Boston Conservatory of Music on a short visit.

C. B. Whitney is away on a business trip in the northern part of the state.

W. B. Gammell is at work for W. F. Hastie at the Lake Side Resort, West Barnet.

Charles Parker of Monroe has bought an interest in the store of H. E. Wilson.

There will be a lawn party and promenade at the residence of George I. Brown on Friday evening of this week, instead of at the town hall, as was reported in last week's CALEDONIAN. Music will be furnished by the band. Everybody invited.

EAST BARNET.

The visitors from out of town this week are: Mrs. Enos and daughter Alice from Newport, and Mrs. Bullock from Lyndonville at S. C. Kendall's; Mr. and Mrs. H. Bailey from Burke and Mrs. Charles Brown and three children from Brooklyn, N. Y., at Calvin Brown's.

George Nelson and family are spending a few days at Lake Willoughby.

Miss Laura Nelson, who has been spending a few weeks at the beach, returned last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Moore have been to Olcott visiting his son, H. C. Moore.

Mr. Healy preached in the grove near C. Brown's last Sunday.

The entertainment given at the chapel Monday evening was very fine and enjoyed by all. The music and reading were excellent and aunt Jerusha Dow's album was well exhibited.

Calvin Brown, who had his arm broken two weeks ago, is getting along well. It was a hard thing for a man so old to meet with such an accident, and he has the sympathy of all of his neighbors.

EAST BURKE.

H. D. Webster's sister Maud, with her friend, Mr. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., are visiting him.

Mrs. Mabel Vance is at her father's, J. P. Stafford's.

Miss Belle Amidon is at her father's with a friend.

Mrs. Gage has returned from the hospital as comfortable as could be expected but still very weak.

Carl Phillips goes this week to Boston to visit his sister there.

Mrs. F. G. Hosten went to Granby last Friday to attend the funeral of Miss Etta Carpenter.

Between 50 and 60 went from here to Willoughby last Wednesday picnicking.

The Good Templars give a box party at their hall next Friday night, to which all are invited.

The choir rehearsal next Saturday night at F. G. Hosten's.

WEST BURKE.

There seems to be no doubt but that L. Warren's cow which he lost a short time ago died of tuberculosis.

The Westmore mail route has changed hands again, Henry Bugbee having bought out Rash.

The Methodist Sunday school picnicked on Tuesday in the grove back of the church.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Warner (Hartwell) and Miss Sadie Gaskill, the 22d inst.

EAST CONCORD.

Mrs. John Scales' barns that were burned May 28th, including ten nice cows, are replaced with a new barn 100 feet long by 50 wide, with a basement under the whole, one of the finest barns in the county. The barn is nearly completed.

Albert Carr died at his home in this place last Monday of inflammation of the bowels, after a short illness, leaving a widow, two sons and one daughter. The remains were interred in the East Concord cemetery. Mr. Carr was about 47 years old.

Farmers have nearly all finished haying, with about half the usual amount of hay; but there still remains considerable quantity of old hay in the barns around here.

WEST CONCORD.

The Y. P. C. U. of the Universalist church will hold a sociable in the vestry of the church Aug. 18. Supper from seven to eight, promenade in the evening.

The republicans will hold their caucus at the town hall Saturday, Aug. 18, at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Democratic caucus at the town hall on Monday evening, Aug. 20, at 7 o'clock.

Several large pickerel weighing from three and one half to five pounds have been caught in Hall's pond in the last few days, and as a result fishermen are plenty on the pond, though they do not all succeed in catching large fish.

Miss Olie Perkins of Bloomfield, is stopping at Rev. A. Gregory's.

GREENSBORO.

Prof. Whitehill and others of the campers have returned to their homes.

Frank Melvin and his mother attended the celebration at Stowe last week.

Mrs. C. C. Haines is at Lakeport, N. H., visiting her brother, W. S. Calderwood and family, and caring for her mother who is sick.

Nathan Keniston has returned from Peak's Island, but not so much improved in health as his friends had hoped. Mrs. K. remained at home instead of going to the beach as she had planned.

Geo. Simpson and son from Connecticut are in town.

LUNENBURG.

Quite a large party from here went on a picnic to Martin Meadow Pond last Wednesday. They report a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Elden Pierce and son of Berlin Falls are visiting at her mother's, Mrs. Cheney's.

Miss Chase of Fairfield is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Scott, for a few weeks.

Rev. Mr. Land, now of Sugar Hill, recently held a series of evening meetings at the Congregational church.

LYNDONVILLE.

Last Friday night Mrs. Matilda F. Carpenter received a shock paralyzing her right side and rendering her unconscious for a long time. She had overworked herself that day, which is claimed to be the cause of the shock. She is an old lady of 73 years and is consequently in a very critical condition. Her son, Edwin of Ramsey, N. J., was immediately summoned, arriving Saturday night and returning Monday.

B. U. Wells is spending a two weeks vacation in Boston.

Miss Gertie Knight has gone to Boston to spend a few weeks with her brother, Geo., who is employed in a machine shop there.

Dr. F. H. Davis is taking a vacation at Nantasket Beach and vicinity.

Mrs. E. F. Carpenter and daughter, Annie of Ramsey, N. J., are visiting in this vicinity.

Miss Florence Goss of Wells River is visiting friends here.

Mrs. H. L. Parker is visiting friends in Boston.

Mrs. Kimball, an old lady who has been stopping through the summer with G. H. Weeks, fell down stairs last Friday night, dislocating her hip. The case is very serious, but it is thought that she will recover.

LYNDON CENTER.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watson of Three Rivers, Mich., are visiting friends and relatives here.

Miss Lena Dewey of Barton is visiting here.

Mrs. Mathewson and son, Willard, who have been stopping with Henry Hubbard for some weeks past, have returned to their home in Uxbridge, Mass.

The Misses Eva Dodge and Vivia Wiley of Barton are visiting friends here.

E. M. Campbell, E. G. Campbell and T. V. Harris of this place and G. A. Hutchins of Greensboro Bend, went to Ferdinand, Monday, to camp for a week.

Mrs. G. T. Dresser and daughter, Madge, returned Tuesday from Stratford, N. H., where they have been visiting for some time.

John W. McClure is quite seriously ill with typhoid fever.

Ernest Drown of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with his parents.

The Misses Ida, Ada and Emma Ingraham are stopping with George Ingraham.

Miss Blanche Shackford of West Concord spent a few days with Miss Etta Currier last week.

Morton Lyster of Boston is visiting his father, W. H. Lyster.

Elwyn M. Nichols returned from Hanover last week.

I. Harvey Hall left last Monday for Burlington, where he will attend the University of Vermont.

Mrs. G. W. Bemis is spending a few weeks in Bethlehem, N. H., and vicinity.

Carrie Winter leaves next Thursday for the White Mountains to benefit her health.

McINDOES.

The party of ladies who went to Lake Morey last week report a delightful trip. George Winch has bought Martin Turner's house, consideration, $700. Mr. Winch will open a road across the Turner lot to his farm.

Ralph Thompson and Clarence Hardy, both of Portland, Me., are visiting friends in this vicinity. They came from Portland here on their bicycles, making the trip in two days.

Hote Mason, wife and daughter of Boston are visiting Mrs. Mason's sister, Mrs. Ophelia Paddleford.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan and two children of Manchester, N. H., arrived Wednesday to spend a few weeks with Mrs. Morgan's mother, Mrs. J. C. Houghton.

Henry Chamberslin, a policeman of Mt. Holyoke, Mass., is visiting his father, Eri Chamberlin.

Bert Drew, son of Rev. Mr. Drew of Stowe, a former pastor of this town, is at A. B. Perry's. He is a clerk in Steele's store at Lowell, Mass.

O. V. Hatch of Cabot is stopping with his brother-in-law, A. B. Perry, for a few days.

The annual missionary tea was held at Mrs. Catherine Gibson's on Wednesday.

Mrs. McClary and daughter Emilie, and Miss Elizabeth Shaw, who have been at Seth Ford's, returned to their home in Malone on Friday.

Mrs. Lillian (Wright) Kinney of Waltham, Mass., who will be remembered here, spent last week with Mrs. A. H. Hinman.

Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Burt, both of Littleton, were the guests of Mrs. Flood last week.

Master Harry Stevenson of Montpelier is at W. H. Gilchrist's.

There will be a promenade concert at Academy hall on Friday evening. Music, Woodville orchestra. The ladies will furnish refreshments. Proceeds to go towards shingling the Academy.

PEACHAM.

The centennial of the Congregational church is being observed to-day and a full report of the proceedings will appear in next week's CALEDONIAN. There will be illustrations of both the old and the new building, together with all the historical papers and speeches at the banquet. Extra copies at five cents each may be ordered by mail direct from the CALEDONIAN office or of our local agent, C. L. Brown, East Peacham.

Cecil Paul of Groton is visiting in town.

The library has been taken out of Mrs. Sargent's drug store and is placed in A. P. Renfrew's store.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bunker, who were spending their vacation at their home at Barnstead, N. H., returned last week.

About twenty young people attended the teachers' examinations at the academy on Monday and Tuesday.

A great many people are in town to attend the centennial.

Dean Rowe is visiting at Manchester, N. H., this week.

Charles Gates returned from White River Junction last Saturday.

The young people numbering about 30, who have been camping at Martin's pond, returned last Friday. All reported a good time.

The republican caucus to nominate a town representative will be held in the town hall next Saturday evening.

RYEGATE.

The republicans will meet in caucus next Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock to nominate a candidate to represent the town and to nominate 7 justices.

A poverty party will be given by the Y. P. C. E. at the house of S. F. Nelson Thursday evening Aug. 16. If the programme is carried out, it will be very amusing.

The Vermont Presbytery of the United Presbyterian met this week at Greensboro, where it is expected that Mr. Harris will be released from the Pastoral charge of the congregation at this place.

SUTTON.Death of William Baldwin.

Willard Baldwin, whose death is noticed elsewhere, was born in Sutton and has always lived on the South Ridge where he died. He had one or two shocks of paralysis some two or three years ago, since which time he had been confined to his bed and unable to help himself at all. He was an honest and upright man and respected by all who knew him. He leaves an aged companion in very feeble health and one daughter, Mrs. Oscar Page. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the house, the service being conducted by Rev. M. C. Henderson of St. Johnsbury.

Jonathan Woodman and his daughter Mary from Pelham, N. H., have been visiting for a few days past in town. M. Woodman is a son of the late Rev. J. Woodman, so well and favorably known in this section. He left town in 1853 and had not been here to stop since that time. He is a native of Sutton, but finds very few that were here 41 years ago. Mr. Woodman's sister, Mrs. Wm. J. Stanton of North Danville, was with him.

Mrs. J. H. Ainger and daughter Leueila and F. M. Abbott's daughter Lillian, went to Ocean Park, Saturday, for a four or more weeks stop.

F. W. Ball and wife have been in town visiting at his father's the past few days. Mr. Ball is a very popular clerk in Fairbanks store at St. Johnsbury.

There will be a camp fire entertainment at Beckwith's Grove, on Tuesday evening, the 21st, at 6 o'clock. There will be music and other entertainment sufficient for a good time generally. Coffee will be made at the grove and served to all; the people will please bring their own coffee cups and such cake as they wish to eat with their coffee. This will be a free entertainment and everybody is invited.

WATERFORD.

The republicans will hold a caucus at the town hall, West Waterford, Wednesday, Aug. 22, at 2 o'clock, to nominate a representative and list of justices.

LOWER WATERFORD.

Rev. Mr. Roger will hold a meeting in the school house in the Green district, Sunday afternoon, August 19, beginning at 3 o'clock.

Ballots Printed.

Town Clerks are reminded that the place to get their Ballots for Town Representative printed, also Instructions to Voters, is at the

CALEDONIAN OFFICE.

If you have not an electrotype of your signature do not fail to secure it at once. Delays are dangerous and the time for printing the ballots is near at hand.

CHAIR WOOD

Dry Slabs cut up any length desired.

Also, 16 inch wood by the carload a specialty.

T. GAGNER,
ST. JOHNSBURY, VERMONT.

NEW CASH STORE.

Great Reduction of Prices!

A LITTLE CASH BUYS MANY GOODS

— AT —

28 Eastern Avenue,

Where You Will Find

PLAIN and FANCY GROCERIES

of Every Description,

Crockery and Glassware, Decorated China, Lamps and Pottery Goods in Endless Variety.

Boots and Shoes.

No Assortment

MORE COMPLETE, PERFECT FITTING, STYLISH and DURABLE.

Do not fail to call and examine goods when in need of footwear.

Having discarded the old credit system, we believe we are now in a position to give every patron of our store the greatest possible value for his money. Words are cheap, a test is what we want.

GIVE US A CALL.

F. A. & A. W. SCOTT,

28 EASTERN AVE., - ST. JOHNSBURY, VT.

Putting in Her Oar!

When it comes to the household clock and silverware, the woman of the house puts in her oar and runs the voyage to suit herself. That's why we address our ads. to her particularly. We want her to know what we have and how cheap we sell it.

A good clock for $1.00.

Half Dozen Rogers Plated Teaspoons for $1.00.

T. C. SPENCER,

Pythian Building, Eastern Ave., St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Probate of Will.

GEORGE ALDRICH'S ESTATE.

STATE OF VERMONT, Caledonia District, ss. In Probate court, held at the Probate office in St. Johnsbury, within and for said district, on the 13th day of August, A. D. 1894.

An instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of George Aldrich, late of St. Johnsbury in said district, deceased, being presented to court by Lurana S. Aldrich, the executrix therein named, for probate: